

Events in Langley

July 18 to July 24, 2008

'Gardening With Native Plants'

Wednesday July 16th, 7pm-9pm

Enhance your local environment and beautify your garden at the same time! Learn about how you can incorporate native plants in your landscaping. Native plants have the advantage of being easy to grow in their home climate. Free! Location: Langley Demonstration Garden, 4900 block of 221 St. For more information call Madelaine at 604-532-3521 or mwiese@tol.bc.ca to register

4th Annual Farmer's Feast at Krause Berry Farms Sunday, July 20th – 11am - 2pm

A feast for royalty! This is the one stop place where many of our local farmers gather at Krause Berry Farms and bring along their goods to sample and to sell! It is a fabulous event with lots of fun from start to finish. We have hay rides, horse drawn rides, educational field tours, food samples, music, and fresh berries to sell! Hope to see you there! Contact Krause Berry Farms at 604.856.5757 for more information.

Well Seasoned celebrates 4th anniversary with B.C. Food Fest

Thursday July 24th, 6pm-9pm

Well Seasoned gourmet food store and cooking school will mark its fourth anniversary with a B.C. food festival featuring a wide array of delicious locally made foods from some of the province's best food producers and manufacturers. This culinary celebration will include lots of free food samples plus cookbook signings from well known local chefs. This is a free public event. Location: 20771 Langley By-Pass, Langley. For more information call: 604-530-1518.